Participants Information Letter

Dear Students, Parents, and Directors,

Congratulations! We are very pleased that you will be part of the 2017 Middle Level Honors Festival and look forward to having you spend the day with us on the Durham campus of the University of New Hampshire!

First Order of Business: Be sure all of your music is well prepared for the festival!

- Registration: Registration for students and directors will be from 8:00 to 8:40 am in the lobby of the Paul Creative Arts Center.
- Dress:

Rehearsal:	Comfortable clothes.
Concert:	Black ankle length dress or dress pants, white blouse and dress shoes for the girls. Black dress pants, white button down shirt with a tie and dress shoes for the boys.
- Lunch: Please bring a bagged lunch. Also bring enough food for two snack breaks.
- Dinner: Will be provided.
- Health Services: Provided if necessary through the UNH Health Services.
- Schedule: A detailed schedule of the festival day will be given to the directors and students when they register. It's a long day - please be well-rested and prepared.
- Concert: The concert will be held in the Johnson Theater of the Paul Creative Arts Center at 7:00 pm. Directions to the facility are included with the student music packets. Parking will be available in "Lot B" as indicated on the campus map provided.
- Tickets: Tickets for the evening performance can be ordered using the order form included in the student music packets. Tickets will also be available at the door beginning at 6:15 the evening of the performance. Tickets are $5.00 each. The concert begins at 7:00 pm.
- Recordings: A professional recording company will make a recording of the concert. An order form is included with the student music packets. The company will also be taking orders immediately before and after the concert as well as online.
- Transportation Home: Parents are responsible for transportation home of their son or daughter after the concert. The concert will be finished about 8:30 pm.
